

SCOTTISH BAPTIST HISTORY PROJECT

April 2014

There is to be a meeting of the Scottish Baptist History project on Saturday 26 April 2014 at Granton Baptist Church, 99 Crewe Road North, Edinburgh, EH5 2NW
The programme which features papers on a variety of topics is as follows:

10:00 Tea / Coffee

10:30 Gary Ketchen The history of Granton Baptist Church (over 74 years)

12:00 Lunch [Tea / Coffee available]

1:00 Andrew Kaiser 'Mary Martin Richards - Missionary wife or Missionary?'

2:30 Tea /Coffee

2:45 Neil Allison A Scottish Baptist View from the Trenches: Lockhart Landels
Ireland

4:00 Conclusions

There will be a conference fee of £3, including coffee, tea and biscuits, for each of those attending. Participants may like to bring a packed lunch. There is a car park at the church. Those coming by train to Edinburgh should .....Booking forms can be sent to reach me by Thursday 25 April, although it will be possible to register and pay on the day. Our autumn 2014 meeting will take place at Cupar Baptist Church on Saturday 8 November 2014.

If you would prefer not to receive further mailings about the SBHP, please send in the form appropriately completed.

If you received this notice by post, but are on email. Please send me your email address so you can receive notices electronically as this saves on postage costs.

Yours sincerely,

Rev. Dr Brian Talbot

.....
I intend to come on Saturday 26 April 2014, and enclose a cheque for £3, made payable to Brian Talbot (not to SBHP) / Please send no further information about meetings.

Name.....

Address.....

.....
E-mail address.....

Please return to Rev. B.R. Talbot, 33 Kilmaron Loan, Broughty Ferry, Dundee DD5 3TD or to briantalbot@hotmail.co.uk